Email Follow-up Templates – PROBLEMS2

Unfortunately, not every coaching session with a client will be a rousing success. It's the nature of the work you do that, at times, things will go wrong and your clients will struggle. It's on days like that, the days when things go wrong, that keeping in touch is most important – for your client – and for you.

Use these templates to follow-up with clients after a problematic coaching session. Your goal in using them is to support your client despite the problems experienced. Continue to offer praise and encouragement, as well as the motivation to continue the work already accomplished. This series of 4 Email Follow-up Templates will go a long way toward keeping your clients committed to you, and eager for their next session.

By keeping in touch with your clients in this way, you're far more likely to retain them as clients, despite any problems that may develop. Don't allow your client to get bored or frustrated. Don't allow your client to quit on you before they complete the program. Use these positive reinforcement tools to enhance their commitment to you, and to your Wellness Coaching Program.

How to use the Email Follow-up Templates: These email templates are versatile enough to be uploaded and mailed by an Autoresponder service, or they are simple enough to be sent manually. For manual use: Simply copy and paste the text into the Subject line and email body. Insert the client's name and your name at the appropriate locations, then hit SEND! It's that simple. (As your client list and/or mailing list begins to grow, you will definitely want to speak to your website support team about an email/Autoresponder service.)

Subject: Our Business Coaching Session Today

Hello [CLIENT NAME],

I just wanted to follow-up with you after our recent coaching session and say that, even though today was tough, I know we're headed in the right direction. I continue to admire the commitment you've made to the program, and want you to know that I remain JUST AS COMMITTED TO YOU.

The work we're doing is not always fun, and is rarely easy, but in the long run, you will be the better for it. I know that together we can overcome any obstacle, including what happened today. In fact, the problems we experienced today have only inspired me work even harder to help you reach your goals. Hang in there. I can't wait until our next coaching session!
